See More of the United Kingdom and Iceland Than Ever Before

Over 15 nights, explore Iceland’s snow-capped mountains, stunning fjords, and volcanic cliffs—bookended by an unforgettable adventure through the UK.

The voyage begins in Southampton, where walking tours of Old Town and its medieval walls offer a trip through time. Then, it’s a day aboard your boutique hotel at sea before arriving in Belfast—a bustling city in the midst of an amazing resurgence.

From here, The Land of Fire and Ice calls, and after two more days of spa treatments and entertainment at sea, we arrive for an overnight stay in Reykjavik. The world’s northernmost capital, Reykjavik is a cultural hub and home to culinary creativity, colorfully cosmopolitan streetscapes, and a storied history. When the sun goes down, be sure to try Flóki—a local single malt whisky.

The Icelandic adventure continues through breathtaking Ísafjörður, followed by Akureyri, the gateway to the north, and architecturally captivating Seydisfjordur. Then, it’s back to the open seas for two nights before landing in footy-loving Liverpool. Here, be sure to stroll the Cavern Quarter, especially if you’re a fan of The Beatles.

In Plymouth, they will be celebrating another amazing journey—the 400th anniversary of the Mayflower’s crossing to the New World before we bring you back full circle to Southampton.
