13-NIGHT WINE AND ROMANCE VOYAGE

Azamara Quest
Sailing: May 26, 2020

Golf and Romance in Portugal, Spain & France with PerryGolf™

With two late stays, two luxurious days at sea, plus an overnight in Lisbon and two nights in Bordeaux, this incredible Azamara® voyage perfectly pairs golf and romance in some of the best wine-crafting regions on Earth.

Arrive a few days early to explore bustling Barcelona. Start at the waterfront and stroll the shady, tree-lined Las Ramblas boulevard and discover some of the city's best shopping, lively cafes, and a rich mix of medieval, gothic, and modern art and architecture.

After a luxurious day at sea, gaze down at the Mediterranean from 1,400 feet up on the natural fortress on the Rock of Gibraltar, then play 18 holes at La Reserva. This layout on a hillside in Sotogrande is one of Cabell B. Robinson's most admired in Europe enjoyed all the more with stunning vistas over the Mediterranean Sea.

A day in Portimão follows, so play a round of your dreams at The Faldo Course at Amendoeira before two nights in Lisbon. You’ll have plenty of time to tee off along the coast at the famous Oitavos Dunes, before discovering the city of Porto, renowned for succulent seafood, tawny port, and the Estela Golf Club—considered one of the top 10 courses in Portugal.

After exploring Bilbao, Spain—home to the world-famous Guggenheim Museum, hearty Basque-style tapas, and Rioja wines—journey to Bordeaux and beyond, while you sample your way through France’s largest wine growing region. With two nights in port, you’ll also have lots of time to play Les Châteaux at Golf du Médoc, a highly-regarded Bill Coore design known for its immaculate conditioning.

Before debarking in Southampton, spend an afternoon on Guernsey at St. Peter Port. Take a scenic cliffside stroll and explore the island’s fascinating fortifications and rich military history.
