Discover the Wonders of Spain

Starting in Lisbon, Portugal, spend your first day of vacation taking in the sights, sounds, and flavors of the city on a sidecar tour or sampling the ports of the Douro Valley. From Portugal, we arrive in Seville for an immersive two-night stay where you’ll have plenty of time to discover the architectural wonders of this Gothic city. Visit the ornate Alcázar complex, tour the Seville Cathedral—the largest Gothic cathedral in the world and the final resting place of Christopher Columbus—and catch a flamenco performance with a side of tapas.

Then it’s on to the Mediterranean gateway of Gibraltar. With rich cultural history and stunning seaside views, it’s an eclectic blend of British, Spanish, and North African influences worth exploring. When in Malaga, be sure to find some beach time in this coastal paradise, or explore the exceptional museum dedicated to Picasso, who was born here.

Then it’s on to Almeria for a day of sights—cross The Old Square to Puerta Purchena, the heart of Almeria and where you’ll find many tapas bars and the food market. Take in the famous sights of the palm tree-flanked boulevard of Alicante, and the must-see Alhambra palace, fortress, and gardens of Granada. Journey to Valencia for a late stay and tour its impressive Gothic monuments and City of Arts & Sciences.

Next on the itinerary is yet another overnight stay, this time in Barcelona. Marvel at Gaudi’s Sagrada Familia, ramble down the always lively La Rambla and soak up every last bit of this magical region. Your journey finishes in the wonderous, Eternal City of Rome.
