Amsterdam, the Netherlands' capital, is a city of elaborate canals, lined by narrow gabled houses, which form the backdrop to the city's treasure trove of museums, boutiques, dynamic dining, and creative design. On our two-night City Stay, enjoy some leisure time for familiarizing yourself with your surroundings, and a guided tour for an expert, in-depth overview of the city's highlights, such as Dam Square, the Old Church at Begijnhof, the Jordaan District, and the floating flower markets. Following lunch at a local restaurant, your tour continues onto the Van Gogh Museum, dedicated to the works' of the city's most famous native son. The day concludes with a canal dinner cruise.

All Passport details should be confirmed at the time of booking. Sales of this program close 90 days prior: book early to avoid disappointment, as space is limited.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Rijksmuseum: The most popular museum of the Netherlands showcases the works of famed artists, Frans Hals, Vermeer, and Rembrandt, just to name a few.
- Vondelpark: The largest, most popular park in Amsterdam is a great place for jogging, rollerblading, picnicking, or just watching the world go by.
- Canal Cruise: There are a variety of different cruises you can enjoy but, if you're traveling with your significant other, you should definitely go for a romantic dinner/candle-lit cruise.
- Heineken Tour: Get a first-hand look at the brewing process, and journey through the history of Heineken beer and the Heineken family.
- The White Room: For a culinary experience. Chef Jacob Jan Boerma serves whimsical dishes that pay tribute to locally sourced ingredients.
- Café de Pijp: Popular with both young and old for delicious, reasonably-priced drinks.

- Van Stapele: Watch them make delicious cookies in front of your eyes, as classical piano plays overhead.
- Anna + Nina: There are now three stores in Amsterdam filled with beautiful little trinkets.
- Indonesian Rice Table: Holland's famed rijsttafel is a must for food lovers, and there are many establishments that serve the ceremonial feast of Indonesia's Dutch colonists.

DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1

Upon arrival in Amsterdam, you'll be greeted and shown to your hotel. The remainder of the day is at your leisure to acquaint yourself with the city. Review our city highlights for some suggestions on things to do and places to visit.

Day 2

After breakfast, embark on a half-day walking tour through the city. Set out on a short walk, passing some of Amsterdam's monumental highlights such as Dam Square with the Royal Palace, the Old Church, and the Begijnhof. Admire the merchant houses and the floating flower markets along the way. Continue on to the Jordaan district, which is possibly the most famous neighborhood in the Netherlands, known for its beautiful houses, nice restaurants, cafés, and original shops. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant before continuing to the Van Gogh Museum, dedicated to the works of Vincent van Gogh and his contemporaries. After, you'll be shown back to your hotel. Spend the remainder of your afternoon, exploring at your leisure (review our highlights for ideas) before regrouping for a canal dinner cruise.

Day 3

After breakfast, you'll be met and taken to the airport for your onward flight.
